The Kenton County Airport Board Invites Applications for
Director – Capital Accounting
Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky International Airport (CVG)

The Director – Capital Accounting is responsible for directing activities related to accounting for capital expenditures, componentization, capitalization and safeguarding of assets, application of expenditures to capital funding sources and compliance therewith, and interfacing with departments throughout the organization and regulatory oversight authorities.

The ideal candidate will have knowledge of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) related to:

- Accounting concepts and techniques related to fixed assets, large/complex capital projects and related funding;
- Allocation and componentization of project costs for capitalization and depreciation
- Accounting concepts and compliance requirements and procedures related to grants and other forms of capital funding
- Large, ongoing and dynamic capital programs and related reporting and cash flow projections
- Management principles and practices;
- KCAB contractual obligations;
- KCAB policies and practices;
- Problem Solving;
- Financial management;
- Project management.

Position Qualifications

Bachelor's Degree in a related field and ten years of related experience; or, an equivalent combination of education and experience sufficient to successfully perform the essential duties of the job. Candidates should also hold certification as a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and/or Certifed Management Accountant (CMA) and/or Certified Public Finance Officer (CPFO).

Salary and Benefits

The starting salary range for this position is $80,900 - $103,900 DOE with a total salary range up to $115,000 and there is an extraordinary benefit package. Highly qualified candidates may be eligible for an increased starting salary.

For instructions on how to apply, click here to see the recruitment brochure or visit the searches tab at www.adkexecutivesearch.com.

Position closes Friday, March 24, 2017