

Jason L. Cook

Jason has over thirteen (13) years of experience in local government with the City of Dayton. Previously served as the controller at Wilberforce University and currently serves as the budget administrator for COTA. Jason is a past Chair of the Neighborhood Leadership Alumni Association (NLIAA) and the Dayton Business Technology High School Advisory Committee. He currently serves as the President Board Member of the Dayton Business Technology and as a member of the Education Committee with Ohio Government Finance Officers Association. Mr. Cook received his B.S. in Finance and MBA in Finance/Healthcare Management from Wright State University. He is ambitious and purposeful. He is also currently in pursuit of his CPA.